Reviews

This book will not be simple to get going on reading but extremely exciting to read through. Yes, it can be play, still an interesting and amazing literature. I am very easily could possibly get a delight of reading a written book.

Seward, Relative to Grants of Lands to Hungarian Exiles, C: Delivered in the Senate of the United States, January 30, 1850 Mr. Houston begged leave to assure the Senator from Mississippi, that if he supposed he (Mr. Houston) had any idea of interfering with any other gentleman upon the subject of bids, he was entirely mistaken, for he would assure him that he had no aspirations which would conflict with those to which the Senator from Mississippi was so justly entitled. (Laughter.) Mr. Houston then proceeded with some general remarks in support of his proposition. Mr. Seward. Mr. President, the resolution which I had the honor to submit in relation to the subject now under consideration may as well be brought distinctly before the Senate, and I therefore will ask the Clerk to read the resolution. The resolution was accordingly read as follows: Resolved, That the conduct of Austria and of Russia, in the war in which those powers have subverted the nationality and the liberties of Hungary, has been marked by injustice, oppression, and barbarity, which justly deserve the condemnation of mankind, while they commend the Hungarian people to the sympathies of other nations, and especially of republican States; and that the Committee on the Public Lands be directed to inquire and report on the propriety of setting apart a portion of the public domain to be granted, free of all charges, to the exiles of Hungary already arrived, and hereafter to arrive, in the United States, as well as to the exiles fleeing from oppression in other European countries. Mr. Seward proceeded. Mr. President, it will be recollected...
